

PRIVACY NOTICE

Moray Business Women

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Moray Business Women are committed to safeguarding the privacy of persons for whom we process Personal Data. In this policy we explain how we will treat Personal Data processed by us, in accordance with data protection legislation, including the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation ('GDPR').
- 1.2 Personal Data includes any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('Data Subject') who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.
- 1.3 Processing, for the purpose of this Privacy Notice, means any operation or set of operations which is performed on Personal Data or on sets of Personal Data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaption or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.
- 1.4 Before you disclose to us the Personal Data of another person, you must obtain that person's consent or have another lawful basis for such disclosure.

2. Processing Personal Data – Lawful Bases

- 2.1 We will only process such Personal Data which is adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary to achieve the purpose of the processing.
- 2.2 We may process Personal Data for the following lawful purposes:
 - (a) Performance of a contract or to enter into pre-contractual negotiations;
 - (b) Compliance with a legal obligation placed on us;
 - (c) To protect the vital interests of either yourself or another person; and/or
 - (d) For other reasons with your consent, which can be withdrawn at any time.

3. Processing Personal Data – How We Obtain and Collect Personal Data

- 3.1 We primarily only process Personal Data that our members and potential members provide us with.
- 3.2 We may also process the following kinds of Personal Data from your visit to our website:

- (a) information about your computer and about your visits to and use of this website (including your IP address, geographical location, browser type and version, operating system, referral source, length of visit, page views and website navigation paths);

- (e) information contained in or relating to any communication that you send to us or send through our website (including the communication content and metadata associated with the communication);
- (f) information necessary so as to send you statements, invoices and payment reminders to you and collect payments from you;
- (g) information necessary so as to provide third parties with statistical information about our users;
- (h) information required so as to deal with enquiries and complaints made by or about you relating to our website;
- (i) information required so as to keep our website secure and prevent fraud; and
- (k) any other personal information that you choose to send to us.

- 3.3 We may obtain your Personal Data through other third parties, such as
- public databases (e.g. Companies House and the electoral register);
 - government agencies;
 - other publicly available sources (e.g. the press or online search engines);
 - as well as from other third parties.

Such data may include your name, address, email address and telephone number. If we obtain any other personal data from third party sources, we will tell you about this.

4. Processing Special Category Personal Data

In the event that we need to obtain and process Special Category Personal Data from you, other than as required by law, we will always tell you why, and how the information will be used and obtain your consent for this. Special Category Personal Data is Personal Data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health, or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.

5. Processing Personal Data Relating to Criminal Convictions and Offences

All processing of Personal Data relating to criminal convictions and offences or related security measures, including Personal Data relating to the commission of offences or proceedings for an offence committed or alleged to have been committed by the Data Subject or the disposal of such proceedings including sentencing, will be processed either by consent or when processing is authorised by law.

6. Disclosing Personal Data

- 6.1 We may disclose your Personal Data to any of our nominated officers, insurers, professional advisers, agents, suppliers, or subcontractors insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this policy.
- 6.2 We may disclose your Personal Data:
- (a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law;
 - (b) to protect rights, property, the safety of us, our customers, users of our website or other persons;
 - (c) in connection with any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings;
 - (d) in order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights (including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention and reducing credit risk);
 - (e) to the purchaser (or prospective purchaser) of any business; or asset that we are (or are contemplating) selling; and / or to another organisation if we enter into a joint venture or merge with another organisation.
- 6.3 We will not, without your express consent, supply your Personal Data to any third party for the purpose of their, or any other third party's marketing.
- 6.4 Except as provided in this policy, we will not provide your Personal Data to third parties without first obtaining your consent.
- 6.5 If we wish to pass your Special Personal Data on to a third party, we will only do so once we have obtained your explicit consent, unless we are required to do so by law.
- 6.6 Any third party who we share your Personal Data with are obliged to keep your details securely and when no longer needed, to dispose of them securely or to return the Personal Data to us.

7. Retaining Personal Data

- 7.1 Personal Data that we process for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes.
- 7.2 Unless we advise you otherwise, we will retain your Personal Data in accordance with legal requirements and best practice.

8. Security of Personal Information

- 8.1 We will take reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information.

- 8.2 We will store all the personal information you provide on our secure password-protected systems.
- 8.3 You acknowledge that the transmission of information over the internet is inherently insecure, and we cannot guarantee the security of data sent over the internet.

9. Your Rights

You have the following rights regarding the Personal Data which we hold about you:

- 9.1 right of access – you have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you, and to whom it has been disclosed;
- 9.2 right of rectification – you have a right to correct Personal Data that we hold about you that you think is inaccurate or incomplete;
- 9.3 right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') – in certain circumstances you can ask for the Personal Data which we hold about you to be erased from our records;
- 9.4 right to restriction of processing – in certain circumstances you have a right to restrict the processing of Personal Data;
- 9.5 right to data portability – you have a right to have the Personal Data we hold about you provided to you in a machine-readable format, and the right to have that transferred to another organisation;
- 9.6 right to object – you have the right to object to direct marketing, which is an absolute right to object and cannot be refused.

10. Complaints Procedure and Right to Legal Redress

- 10.1 In the event that we refuse your request under rights of access or right to object to processing, we will provide you with a reason why.
- 10.2 If you wish to make a complaint about how your Personal Data is being processed by us, or any third party on our behalf, we would be grateful if you would in the first instance contact our Nominated Person, using the contact details provided in paragraph 15 below, who will endeavour to resolve your issue to your satisfaction.
- 10.3 You also have the right to complain directly to the Information Commissioner's Office and seek other legal remedies.

11. Third Party Websites

- 11.1 Our website may include hyperlinks to, and details of, third party websites.
- 11.2 We have no control over, and are not responsible for, the privacy policies and practices of third parties.

12. Updating Personal Data

You are responsible for letting us know if the Personal Data that we hold about you needs to be corrected or updated. You can contact us by email using the contact details provided in paragraph 15 below.

13. Transfers of Personal Data to Countries Outside of the UK, EU and EEA

If we need to transfer Personal Data for processing to a Third Country (which is to say a country outside of the EU and EEA), we will generally only do so where:

- (a) the European Commission have taken an adequacy decision;
- (b) lawful binding corporate rules are in place;
- (c) lawful model contract clauses are in place;
- (d) we have obtained your specific consent to the proposed transfer, and you have been advised of the possible risks of such transfers;
- (e) the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between ourselves, or are part of the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken at your requests;
- (f) the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in the interests of you, and us, and another party;
- (g) the transfer is necessary for important reasons of public interest;
- (h) the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; and/or
- (i) the transfer is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of you or others, where you are physically or legally incapable of giving legal consent.

14. Cookies

14.1 Our website uses cookies.

14.2 A cookie is a file containing an identifier (a string of letters and numbers) that is sent by a web server to a web browser and is stored by the browser. The identifier is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server.

14.3 Cookies may be either “persistent” cookies or “session” cookies. A persistent cookie will be stored by a web browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date, unless deleted by the user before the expiry date; a session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.

14.4 We may use persistent and session cookies on our website.

14.5 Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies. Blocking all cookies will have a negative impact upon the usability of many websites. If you block cookies, you may not be able to use all the features on our website. You can delete cookies already stored on your computer.
